

HUMIDITY HAS THE CALL.

Less Caloric, but More Moisture in New York Air.

Outlook for Showers During All the Afternoon and Evening.

The relief which cooler weather to-day has brought to suffering New Yorkers is partially offset by the increased humidity, which in its way is even more discomforting than extreme heat.

The temperature in this city at 8 A. M. to-day was 75 degrees, and at noon it was only 77, or nearly ten degrees cooler than at the same hour yesterday.

In the same time the humidity had run up from 77 to 83 per cent, and was still increasing. This indicates that there will be more rain and showery weather for the rest of the day, with generally fair, clearing weather, with a still lower temperature to-morrow.

According to Local Forecast Observer Dunn, the weather conditions remain over the South and Central States, but slightly cooler in the middle Atlantic and New England States, and over the Lake region; also in the North-west over North Dakota and in the Northwest.

The probability on the contrary is that the present cool spell will be of short duration, for it is growing hotter than ever in the interior States, and a low pressure area has started in the extreme Northwest and is moving eastward.

The increasing death rate of this city, which is attributed to the damp, sultry weather, has begun to give the health authorities some uneasiness. Yesterday's record was 161, as against 200 for the day before. Of these, 65 per cent were children under five years of age, and in most cases it was the result of diarrhoeal complaints. Only one case of cholera morbus was reported yesterday.

TAKEN BACK TO BINGHAMTON.

Dr. McDonald Charged with Complicity in a Murder.

Dr. Charles M. McDonald, who is wanted in Binghamton, N. Y., on a charge of manslaughter, was turned over to Sheriff Ocker-mann, of Broome County, by Justice White, in the Jefferson Market Court this morning.

Dr. McDonald was arrested on a bench warrant by Sergeant Jacob and Dunn, of Inspector Steer's office, Wednesday night. The arrest was made shortly before midnight.

The doctor was leaning against a lamp-post at Tenth street and Broadway. He has been away from Binghamton four months. He refused to say where he had been staying.

It is charged by the Binghamton authorities that Dr. McDonald was an accomplice of Ernest Schrock, a merchant of that city, in poisoning the latter's wife, Mrs. Schrock, and her husband, it is said, did not get along well together, and the doctor was charged with a large insurance on her life payable to her husband.

Four months ago she complained of being ill, and her husband, it is charged, got a powder prescribed for her by Dr. McDonald, and told her to mix it with water and to take it more water in the sauce and to have given it to her. She died in a few minutes.

The powder, it is charged, was strychnine. Dr. McDonald disappeared after the woman's death. He weighed about 250 pounds, had a swarthy complexion, and features that seem to indicate Indian descent. Detective Dunn recognized him from the Sheriff's description.

THE PESTILENCE IN EUROPE.

Spanish Medical Experts Say the Paris Disease is Cholera.

Madrid, [By Associated Press.] The Spanish Medical Commission that was sent to Paris to inquire into the nature of the epidemic of so-called "cholera" has been received. The report declares that the disease is Asiatic cholera.

In consequence of this report the Government has ordered that all persons who are immediately taken along the Pyrenean frontier to prevent the introduction of the disease into Spain.

Dr. Ferraz, July 14.—Since the last report twenty new cases of cholera and eleven deaths from the disease have been reported at Simbrak, on the Volga River.

BANK PRESIDENT DOBLER DEAD.

For Forty Years Identified With Banking Interests in This City.

W. B. Dobler, President of the West Side Bank, at 485 Eighth avenue, died at 3 o'clock this morning at his home in Kildwood, N. C.

When Mr. Dobler left the bank last Saturday he was as well as usual, and intended going away on a three or four weeks' vacation. A stroke received from him last night, however, today stated that Mr. Dobler had been prostrated with apoplexy the day before. This morning a telegram announced his death.

Mr. Dobler had been identified with the banking interests of this city for more than thirty years. He had been president of the West Side Bank of Commerce, now out of existence, to be cashier of the Sixth National Bank. He was married in 1860, and until 1880 he was cashier, then becoming President.

KATIE HAD THE MEASLES.

But the Tenants Deny She Was Left Dying in the Hallway.

The tenants of the house 431 West Sixteenth street this morning indignantly denied the report that Kate Van Doren, a four-year-old child, was left dying in the hallway because she was found to be suffering from measles.

Mrs. Carroll, the housekeeper, told an Evening World reporter that the mother of the child had been dismissed two weeks ago for non-payment of rent. Mrs. Kelly, one of the tenants, has been keeping Katie for her mother, and when the little one became sick last evening Mrs. Kelly sent for a physician, who summoned an ambulance.

The surgeon, who examined the child, was suffering from measles, he notified the Health Department, and the child was removed to the Reception Hospital at the foot of East Sixteenth street.

Steam Yacht Linta Launched.

July 14, 1892.—The steam yacht Linta, owned by Walter Luitgen, of Linden, N. J., a well-known banker of New York City, was launched from the yard of C. L. Seabury & Co. at midnight last night in the presence of a large throng, including many prominent persons. The Linta is 85 feet long, handsomely fitted out and one of the largest steam yachts ever built here. The launch was a great success.

DECIDED AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

A Lawuit That Beats the Celebrated Case of Jarndyce.

Thirty years on trial, the principals dead, the judge dead, the witnesses dead—this is the strange history of the suit of Palen vs. Bushnell, in which Judge E. L. Fancher as referee has just rendered his decision.

The suit was begun in 1862, and has been before two referees, John P. Crosby and Judge Fancher. It was brought by William Palen, receiver of Terry Brothers, against John H. Bushnell, executor of Edward D. Bushnell.

It was for the recovery of the value of 100 tons of pig-iron at $11 a ton. The transfer of this iron was claimed to be illegal.

During its dreary dragging through the courts the most prominent men have been witnesses, among them Fayweather, Hoy, Schuchter, Loring, Andrews and others.

The most singular feature of the case is the mortality of those connected with it. The Terry brothers are dead, but no trace of one of the place or time, when and where they died could be discovered.

Edward D. Bushnell, the defendant, is dead, as are the bondsmen of Mr. Palen, the receiver.

Referee Crosby is dead and so are Judges Hamard, Brady, Clarke and Folger, who heard the case at various times.

Of the forty-eight witnesses all but two are dead. Of the many lawyers concerned John H. Strahan and Sanford and Woodruff are dead.

Nelson Merrill, who commenced the suit for the plaintiff, is still living.

The referee's decision is in favor of the defendant on all the points. His counsel believe that the case is now finally settled.

PEOPLE'S PARTY ORGANIZING.

Members Come Together in the Seventh Assembly District.

A district organization of the People's party has been organized in the Seventh Assembly District, with Harding Weston, President; William Thayer, Secretary; A. I. Thayer, Treasurer; and W. Reid, Delegate to the County Committee.

President Weston says the purpose of the organization is to prevent leaders of local labor associations from having opportunity to work in the interval of the republican party.
